

Accounting 121 – Financial Accounting

Student Learning Outcomes

1. Identify and implement the fundamentals of basic accounting including how to record business transactions, prepare financial statements, and use accounting information with generally accepted accounting principles.
2. Demonstrate theoretical and practical problem-solving skills while developing analytical abilities in using financial data.
3. Interpret and apply principles learned when solving an accounting issue.