

Student Learning Outcomes
for
FASH 225 – Apparel Analysis

1. Describe and analyze the different business sectors that together make up the apparel industry.
2. Identify business practices that affect the apparel industry, both as required by federal law and reflecting high ethical standards.
3. Describe in order the steps in the mass production of apparel.
4. Give examples of the generally accepted size classifications and sizes used within the apparel industry.
5. Define how the physical features of fabrics, findings and trims contribute to the performance and cost of a garment.