

Student Learning Outcomes

For

LEGL 276

1. Identify and apply the basics of how computers operate, both inside and out.
2. Compare and contrast the main or core programs and software that law firms use in daily operation and when litigating cases.
3. Identify and analyze the Internet, in working with computers, litigating cases and operating a law office.