

Student Learning Outcomes for MEDA 111 –Basic Medical Terminology II

Upon completion of this class, students will be able to:

1. Describe the origin of medical terms.
2. Analyze and compare the spelling and pronunciation of medical terms.
3. Demonstrate a recognition of the principles of word construction and word analysis.
4. Compare and contrast the prefixes, suffixes, and word roots related to body structures, pathological conditions and diseases, operative terms and techniques, laboratory and radiological diagnostic procedures.