

Literature 266 "Black Literature"
Course Student Learning Outcomes
December 5, 2006

SLO	Assessment Method
By the end of Literature 266, students will be able to:	Students and instructors will be able to assess students' skills by:
- compose an essay which follows the conventions of a literary analysis and is in MLA format.	- referring to writer's reference handbook for MLA and literary analysis adherence guidelines.
- formulate analytical arguments on the material from Lit. 266 in oral and written formats which have defined and arguable thesis statements.	- identifying and stating argument's thesis for other students and instructor; professor evaluates thesis effectiveness.