

PHYS 260 "Midterm" Grades

Here are your prospective grades as of 23 April, 2009. These grades are simply a guideline; I may, at my discretion, raise you grade if you have been showing marked improvement over the semester. If you have any questions, please come see me during office hours or send me an email.

Remember, if you are missing 3 or more labs you can not pass the course. If you do not drop, you will be given a grade of F for the course.

The last day to drop is Thursday, 30 April. After that date I must give you a letter grade, and that grade can not be a W.
